

Press Release Elizabeth Stampede Rodeo

Elizabeth, Colorado | October 24, 2015

Subject: Rodeo of the Year!

On October 23, at the Mountain States Circuit Finals, the Elizabeth Stampede was awarded Medium Rodeo of the Year.

Jace Glick, Stampede President, remarked, "We are truly honored and humbled by this prestigious recognition. This is the twelfth time our esteemed organization has won in the "Best Rodeo" category, within The Mountain States Circuit."

He continued, "I believe this is just another testament to the quality of our volunteers. As an all-volunteer organization, we continue to strive to include the entire community. Each year over one hundred local and national businesses, groups and organizations come together to celebrate everything that is good and right within our community. The Rodeo continues to link us to our proud western heritage of kindness and sharing with our neighbors."

To most volunteers, the rodeo is more than just a place to spend their time, it's a family. "We are so proud of our volunteers who pull together and make this Rodeo happen –not only on rodeo weekend, but throughout the year; we give back to the community through our charitable Stampede Foundation and sponsor such programs as Stampede to Read - and to have our efforts result in such a prestigious award is truly an honor," said Traci Swisher, Stampede Board member and Production Chair for the 2015 Rodeo.

Indeed, the 250 volunteers of the Elizabeth Stampede are not content to rest on their laurels – they are already planning a spectacular event for 2016. Their goal is to produce an excellent rodeo for both contestants and spectators alike, with new celebrations in store!
